Madanna Divine is a multidimensional artist whose work bridges sound, design, and storytelling. Her compositions are admirably described as “portal experiences” —designed to evoke emotion, awaken intuition, and realign the listener with their inner progression. With a background in digital design, content creation, and writing, she creates immersive experiences that transcend traditional genre boundaries and blends elements that transcend the status quo with a blend of nostalgic nuances and trendsetting adaptability.

Before stepping fully into her artist identity, Delilah Madanna Lewis, or artistically known as Madanna

Divine, built a career as a digital designer, production editor, and content creator, crafting visual narratives and branded experiences for clients across fashion, wellness, and tech. Her writing explores themes of energy, identity, and transformation—often weaving poetic language with spiritual insight; highlighting social issues, life experiences, and futuristic ideals. This multidisciplinary foundation informs her music, which is as visually evocative and conceptually rich as it is immersive.

Music Portfolio

Madanna’s discography spans ambient EPs, experimental singles, and meditative soundscapes. She has also done a handful of unofficial covers and mixtape-era type freestyles, which can be viewed across her social media presence. (Can be provided upon request.) Her work is often tuned to experimental prose and inspired by new age archetypes, storytelling objectives, and socially aware initiatives.

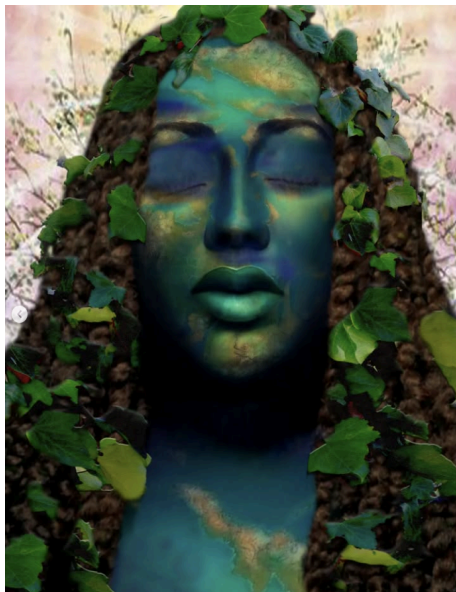

Discography

Title	Type	Year	Highlights
Soundscapes from the Void	EP	2025	A triptych of sonic instrumental compositions exploring balance, manifestation, and energetic cycles.
Do Me Better	Single	2024	A sultry, alt-electronic hip-hop track blending vulnerability with empowerment.
Signal	Single	2023	A hauntingly magnetic melody that pulses with urgency and sonic depth.
The Classic	Single	2023	Blends her signature mystique with a sharp, hip-hop-infused edge.
Dutti Whine (feat. Jae 65ive)	Single	2023	A sultry, bass-driven anthem that fuses dancehall swagger with flair.
The Rule of Three	EP	2022	Blends ambient textures, spoken word, and experimental hip-hop into a listening experience, unlocking layers of Divine's artistic psyche.
Exo	Single	2021	A mused delivery with a hypnotic, genre-blurring pulse.
Ace	Single	2020	Mastery of mood and minimalism with a stripped-back soundscape of affirmations.

Madanna Divine's artistry extends beyond music into a constellation of creative and energetic practices:

- Frequency-based compositions for meditation, breathwork, and Reiki
- Motion graphics inspired by sacred geometry and cosmic archetypes
- Album visuals and immersive video installations
- Brand identity design for content creators and entrepreneurs
- Essays and poetic reflections on energy, transformation, and archetypes
- Conceptual storytelling woven into music releases and visual campaigns
- Journaling prompts for listeners and collaborators across a vast number of industry niches.

Visual Identity

Madanna's aesthetic is ethereal, mysterious, and deeply symbolic. It has become a signature—instantly recognizable and evocative, often used to build immersive brand worlds for herself and collaborators across the collective marketing and entertainment industry.

Her visuals often feature:

- Landscapes and dreamlike textures
- Symbols, sigils, and sacred geometry
- Fluid motion and plays on art concepts such as chiaroscuro and duality
- Color palettes tuned to emotional resonance

NFTs & Blockchain Art

In the expanding NFT space, Madanna Divine has begun exploring tokenized art and sound as a way to preserve energetic transmissions and offer exclusive access to her creative universe. Her approach to NFTs includes:

- Limited Edition Audio-Visual Drops
- Interactive Ritual Tokens (unlocking meditations, journal prompts, or unreleased music)
- Collaborations with digital artists and developers to create immersive blockchain-based experiences

Like other artists reshaping the NFT landscape, Madanna uses this medium to challenge traditional ownership models and offer collectors a deeper, more intimate connection to her work.

AI & Creative Expansion

Madanna is also experimenting with AI-assisted design and sound synthesis, using generative tools to explore new dimensions of her aesthetic. Her interest lies not in automation, but in collaboration with machine intelligence—treating AI as a co-creator in the unfolding of mythic, multidimensional art.

In all these spaces, Madanna Divine is more than a creator—she’s a cultural architect, building bridges between artform and future innovation. Her work invites audiences to not just consume, but to participate in a living, evolving ritual of art, sound, and soul.

Visual assets and moodboards available upon request.
